Daffodil Bulbs Planted in the Orchard

On Saturday, 22 October, a work party assembled in the historic orchard to plant several boxes of daffodil bulbs that Dodie had bought at auction on 15 October. Also in attendance were members of the three families who had purchased the right to sponsor an apple tree: The Niensens, The Girodys and the Tancons. A great turnout and a fun afternoon was had by all.

Contributors to Extravaganza Italiana Thanked

The club has distributed more than 80 framed certificates of thanks to the many individuals, businesses and organizations who so generously supported our successful Extravaganza Italiana. Many cards and letters have been written by club members and the Comox Valley Record and Comox Valley Echo ran ads listing our generous supporters.

Club Welcomes Another New Rotarian

Jill Cornwell of Vancouver Island InsuranceCentres is our newest member. Jill says she was attracted to the club because we don't just sit around and talk, we do things. John Jones is Jill's sponsor and once he returns from his holiday in the UK, Jill will be officially inducted.

Make sure to spend some time over breakfast with Jill and make her feel welcome.

Rotary Calendars Still Available

A few of the very attractive Rotary calendars featuring Vancouver Island artists and their art are still available from Dodie. They sell for $20.00 each and are ideal gifts for friends and family.

Eighty of these calendars were presented to the club as a charter gift by the Rotary Club of Lantzville so they gave us the potential to raise $1,600.00 to help swell our bank account.

"The thing I like about this club is that people don't just sit around, they do things!"
-Jill Cornwell

Searching for a Newsletter Editor

To keep everyone informed of club activities, Rotary clubs publish newsletters that are distributed electronically and in "hard" copy. Putting a newsletter together on a regular basis is a lot of fun and it's amazing how much one can learn about Rotary and the members of the club. Interested? Talk to John C. <http://www.cumberlandcentennial.rotary-site.org>
